Vincent Bernard Jones “A Future to Fulfill”

Vincent B. Jones born in the summer of 1970 is a native of Albany, Georgia. He is married (25 years) to his college sweetheart (Santouria). They have two wonderful children (Vincent II and Vannah).

As an adolescent Vincent’s analytical and problem-solving skills became very apparent. This skillset along with his fascination for computers led him to pursue a college degree in computer science at THE Albany State College in the fall of 1988. While attending Albany State, Vincent was actively involved on campus in various organizations such as Student Leaders, Board of Managers, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated.

Shortly after graduating with a Bachelor of Science (Computer Science) in 1994, Vincent earned an entry level computer programmer position with TSYS, a financial services and electronic transactions processor in Columbus, GA.

Mr. Jones’s career with TSYS began on August 2, 1995 and concluded with his retirement from corporate America on December 31, 2020. While employed with TSYS, Vincent quickly rose to various midlevel management positions to include Associate Director, Project Lead and Business Consultant.

Today Vincent has transitioned into the entrepreneurial world where he is a full-time real estate investor and agent affiliated with Keller Williams Realty River Cities
